

SUFFOLK WORKS.
AMUS & GREEN,
WEST PRATT STREET,
 Near Mount Clare Depot B. & O. R. R. Bolton,

Builders of Steam Engines of the most modern and improved principles.

Steam Boilers of every description, Saw Mills for Steam or Motive Power, Lathes, Planing Machines, Boreing Mills, Drills, and Machinist tools generally.

Particular attention will be given to repairing Steam Engines, Boilers, and Jobbing in general. Iron Planing done at the shortest notice. Pattern making done on reasonable terms. Castings furnished in a few hours notice, as we are melting Iron from 5 to 7 hours every day.

Specifications, Estimates and Drawings furnished on application by Mail or otherwise.

---

JAMES BATES,
IRON FOUNDER,
PRESIDENT STREET,

BETWEEN PRATT & STILES STS., BALTIMORE,

Continues to manufacture every description of CASTINGS to order; such as Pans and Kettles for Soap Factories and Hatters, Saw and Grist Mill Castings, Columns for Front of Stores, Jam Plates, Window Weights, Cellar Cylinders, Window Guards, Wreaths, Windlass Castings, Hauser Irons, Grate Bars, Cannon Balls, Plough Castings, Cart Boxes, Cast Spouts, Pullies for Stone Quarries, &c., having a great variety of Patterns. Persons who have Lots in

GREENMOUNT CEMETERY,

And intend to have them enclosed will find at his Foundry a variety of New and Elegant Patterns and Designs gotten up expressly for this beautiful repository of the dead. He attends to enclosing and setting the Railing complete in the most durable and substantial manner. All orders for Castings or Railing will be attended to promptly, and at prices made to suit the times. The proof will be by calling on him.

↪ Connected with the Foundry is a PATTERN SHOP, where every description of Patterns are made to order.